The Senior Patriarch's veto shall be absolute, and from his decisions there shall be no appeal.

Reunion and called meetings shall be opened by prayer and invocation to Almighty God for His blessing in the work of our Band of Botsford, and crown it with prosperity and success.

So mote it be.

SALUTATION.

All hail ! the Botsford Band,
An honor to the land
In which you dwell.
Let each a tribute bring,
Your many virtues sing ;
Let music sweet outring,
And good cheer swell.

We joyous greeting send,
With voices kind to blend,
Where kindred meet.
Ye sacred towers ring out !
Trees, clap your hands and shout,
Dispel all care and doubt,
This glad day greet.

Great Author of our lives,
Bless children, husbands, wives—
No clannish clan ;
Thy ensign fair extend
Our hand above. Defend
Our honor to the end,
Our guide, the Man.

With blessing recognize,
This venture new emprise,
We now install
To fellowship promote
To unity devote ;
To children still remote
A potent call.

The Botsford Band, all hail !
Banded to wrong assail,
The right defend.
Gird up your loins each day,
For strength and guidance pray
To walk the shining way—
Love's reign extend.

BAND OF BOTSFORD

Headquarters, 101 Rodney Avenue, Buffalo,
Erie Co., New York, October 27, 1905.

At a meeting held at above place and time, the following rules or by-laws were added to Act of Organization :

Non-payment of annual dues by head of any family shall disqualify him or her from being an active member, and though receiving a loving welcome to Reunion, shall be silent members — that is, disqualified to hold any position and debarred from participation in discussion of any subject that may come up for action.

Senior Patriarch may have a Private Secretary, irrespective of age or sex, and until it be determined who is the oldest living female descendant, the Private Secretary to Senior Patriarch shall act as Treasurer. Any act or writing of that officer, attested by Senior Patriarch, shall be binding on Band of Botsford.

There shall be a Counselor, irrespective of age or sex, who shall be appointed and named by Senior Patriarch, to hold position during life.

When the receipts of annual dues shall be more than sufficient to pay incidental expenses, the surplus shall be a fund for relief of indigent, needy and sick descendants.

And there shall be a board on relief, which shall be constituted and be: Senior Patriarch, Junior Patriarch, Counselor, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall control expenditure of such surplus.

The Cabinet, or official family of Senior Patriarch, shall consist of Junior Patriarch, Ass't Historian, Counselor, Private Secretary and Treasurer.

Subject for raising fund for relief of aged, indigent and needy descendants was proposed by gifts of money and legacies. After a discussion, it was judged premature and was deferred to Annual Reunion, October 18, 1906.

Treasurer reported receipts from annual dues, $8.00; expenditures, $11.68; dispersion, 8.30 P. M.

Le Baron Botsford, M. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., was appointed Surgeon-General and Physician-in-Chief of Band of Botsford during his life.

Harry Gordon Botsford, C. E., of Boston, Mass., was appointed Counselor during his life.

Charles Brainerd Botsford, Boston, Mass., was appointed Poet Laureate of Band of Botsford during his life.

Sue Dana Woolley, Buffalo, N. Y., was appointed Private Secretary.

On receipt of appointment as Poet Laureate, Charles Brainerd Botsford, Boston, Mass., wrote the following Salutation :

SALUTATION.

Hail to our noble chief !
An honor to our Band,
A virile leader brave and true,
Well fitted to command.

Lead on your marshalled corps
In conflict for the right,
That every man by deed may prove
Himself a child of light.

Hail worthy "Potentate,"
Of youthful spirit bold,
To Church and State your life devote
In service manifold.

No Poet Laureate
Is needed to rehearse
Your long, useful, honored life,
In bold heroic verse.

Long live ! our worthy chief,
And when your work is done,
Be you with lasting honor crowned,
Life's battle fought and won.

Boston, Nov. 6, 1905.

EULOGIUM.

Loud and long your voices raise,
Clear and high in triumph sing,
Great gifted master of Poetry,
Charles Brainerd Botsford is king.

C. W. W. Sr.

Buffalo, Erie Co., New York,
Wednesday, Nov. 8, 1905.

SALUTATION.

Greetings to ye Band of Botsford,
Noble race, to thee I sing.
And may all your voices mingle
With a glad triumphant ring.
May we each and every member
Of this glad triumphant band
Through Elizabeth and Henry,
Be an honor to our land.

Every pulse and every heart beat
Vibrates with a love for you.
Oh! my kindred, Band of Botsford,
With your noble blood of blue,
May God's blessing now descending
Rest upon you like a dove,
Emblem of the Band of Botsford!
Emblem of eternal love.

These verses came to me as I was lying sick in bed. I hope they will be acceptable.

Headquarters, 101 Rodney Ave., Buffalo, Erie
Co., N. Y., Thursday, Oct. 18, 1906.

SECOND ANNUAL REUNION

At 10 A. M. Invocation to God for his blessing upon our work.

During the day, descendants enjoyed social intercourse.

At 8 P. M. Assistant Historian, Samuel
Booth Botsford, read the Salutation, by Poet
Laureate, Charles Brainerd Botsford, Boston,
Mass.

SALUTATION.

Again we greet the Botsford Band,
The choicest of our happy land,
At least the most unique.
Gather once more in friendship's name,
Untarnished is our modest fame,
We social joys bespeak.

Let music wake her sweetest strain,
We will repeat the glad refrain
With joyousness and zest,
We still will keep our armor bright,
In righteousness and peace delight,
And be of Heaven blest.

God of our Fathers, we bespeak
Thy blessing now, Thy guidance seek,
For all the way before.
Should we be turned aside from right,
Or err in Thy omniscient sight,
In Father love restore.

Gird up our loins for all the strife
Thou hast appointed us in life,
The shield of faith provide.
The helmet place upon each brow,
And be in us a holy vow,
Give armor true and tried.

And when our mortal race is run,
And we thro' grace have victory won,
Admit us through the gate,
Where prophets, martyrs, all the true,
With songs of triumph ever new,
A gathering throng await.

Boston, Mass.

Senior Patriarch reported that 500 pamphlets of 1st Reunion had been mailed to descendants, and to leading genealogical and historical societies and libraries.
